Oneen's Long Reign Ends and Edward VII. Is King.

TAKES OATH TO-DAY.

Ascends the British Throne at the Age of 60.

THE QUEEN'S FAREWELLS.

Regained Conscionsness While Family Was at Her Bedside.

WITHOUT SUFFERING.

Vitality Was Gone After a Remark able Struggle Against Death.

o'Clock I at Evening, Which Was 1:30 o'Clock New York Time Story of the Last Family The King Remains at Osborne House During the Night, but Will Go to London Early This Morning to Take the Oath of Accession Before the Privy Coundi-Body Will Be Taken to Windsor for eral Services and Buried Bestde That of the Prince Consort Full Prepaestion for the Change of Sovereigns Not Made -Parliament Summoned to Meet This Afternoon to Take the Oath of Allegiance All the British Kingdom in Mourning. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN

From THE SUN Correspondent at Cowes. Cowns, Jan. 22.-Victoria, by the grace of God. Queen of the United Kingdom of the King!" HOW THE DEATH WAS ANNOUNCED

An hour before darkness gathered here dren and grandchildren.

then the Queen died at 6.30 " that the range and facilities of the cities proceed Affing concerns are about the twose and throses within the rest four hours

Then the curtain of unconsciousness end. It was so guter and peaceful and gentle that it was difficult to realize that the shadow of death was present moments. Even the dazzling light which beats upon a throne did not penetrate that chamber, and the tender memories Victoria not as a Queen, but in the dearer | stores were still quietly alight, with their relationship of family

ATTENDANCE DURING HER LAST HOURS The circulation of all manner of imaginative reports during the past three days led the authorities at Osborne House to authorize the publication of the following simple facts sanitarium in Osborne Park. They had champagne and brandy. She was never fast artificially.

The doors of the wing of the palace where the Queen lay were kept looked during her filness, so she was entirely isolated from the rest of the establishment.

THE OFFICIAL NOTICE OF ACCESSION.

Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the nights that in case of sudden death no un-Path, Empress of India, died without pain authorized person should communicate or suffering at Osborne House at half-past | the fact to the Prince of Wales in violation England is silent with grief. The sense Arthur Balfour, First Lord of the Treasury, arrived just in time to perform this duty.

ing that Englishmen will be unable for a Mr. Balfour did not see the Queen. The thoroughfare continued to be throughfare continued to be throughfare continued by at the lodge of Osborne House, where the situation is the statement of the authoriwhispered words from within that the last of the elaborate proceedings now forced scene was being enacted. The guardians upon the nation. One would imagine that of the grounds learned by stages from the great age of the sovereign would have

The words that dispersed this gathering | Within an hour of the Queen's death | Queen was in the greatest danger. brarded retainer whose life's work and seried, and it was difficult to believe that | of persons hurrying along the many in every comment of the irreparable loss service ended with the words he spoke. one was almost in the presence of the first | thoroughfares which converge on the Man- | which the nation and the individuals comhispector trazer is a strongly built, fresh- great event of the new century. Then sion House until the throng numbered posing it sustain. The various eulogies colored old man. He was standing a few came one of those little signs which even many thousands. The comparative si-

I querry, who spoke from the house. In- tragedy had been enacted, the evening lord MAYOR ANNOUNCES THE QUEEN'S passes to one who has abundant claims of his

sor and buried beside that of the Prince | the Lord Mayor then announced the deep | The Delly News says: "Our new King has body will lie in state in Osberne House or ... "My beloved mother has just passed A subject of the last moments of the be removed immediately to St. George's away surrounded by her children and gone a long training in the best of schools friendly.

The King will go to London early in the I the Lord Mayor withdrew. A subdued trains leave Grand Central Station, New York, the New York Central for Chicago, St. Louis a

The remacular of the palmer party will friends If was when the sold, gray lay beganned stay at Indicate Mount one fisters. Mannes to find Marin colours and described

Mining decide above the inaggration of the PROMETERS FOR FAIR CARE PARTWELLS STORTS of the opposes for he organic Technical Description of a next round a parent's deathbed anywhere n the world. They are in their own se-

THE IMPASSIVE VILLAGERS.

Here outside is the village of Cowes, whose quiet, winding streets reach to within Osborne House At a o'clock the little doors open for occasional customers, yet all these people are mourning as sincerely as the children and grandchildren of the

It has been so throughout these last days. People meeting acquaintances in House and the Trinity Pier, whence the last members of the family hastened to the final scene, and officers of the court answered summonses to perform functions of

KING SENDS THE NEWS TO LONDON.

Great Crowd Hears the Queen's Death Announced by the Lord Mayor.

Special Cable Tresputches to THE SUN London Jan 22 - At an early hour this ered at the Mansion House seeking news | cathedrals and churches. The theatres | a large crowd had assembled. The grave despatched by the Mayors and public ment produced the conviction that the At Liverpool, where there is a considerable was amended by the Representation of the delence to the King.

offices and shops. in Cowes the forty press correspondents. The most significant point of the present. Incheon time, when the crowd was very approved in solemn silence and then transing the national anthem, which was im-

GREAT CROWD AWAITS THE NEWS.

hues that all the entrances to the residence | problem now presented. It is only another | During the afternoon the unofficial news | frequently very unintelligent ones. halbeen strictly closed at about 6 30 o'clock. evidence of the marvellous hold that the in the papers again tended to dispel hope The meaning could not be escaped, but Queen had upon the affections of all classes, and about the time a majority of men were received there was a half-hour's wait hed sonally attached to her. Those samply nonnegment that her Majesty was sinking the expression of sorrow which the newswhich soon followed the Prince of Wales all delighted to honor. Greater than the

a voice which he controlled with difficulty | tions of the English court "

ALBERT EDWARD." Having finished reading the telegram via Washington, Richmond, Charleston, "N. Y. & file Special," 210 P. M. Two other trains, Only one night to all Florida points. Quickest foute. Atlantic Coast Line office, 1161 Broadway.—Adv.

to know not only the hotel four recognition to some the hotel in the course of the feometic recognition of generalized generalized of generalized appropriation of generalized appropriation of generalized which which is considered as a recognition of a recognition of generalized appropriation of generalized generalized appropriation of generalized generalized appropriation of generalized forte stated in the frequent holleting hips, day fine concern Emperor will eccume were genomics suplicant. More of the tim nation of happy in the configuration that cluded world inside the gates of Caberne nounced to the townsfolk at 646 o clock was a good friend to the poor of Windsor and its neighborhood and she will probably

Memorial numbers of the newspapers with full descriptions of the life and reign of Queen Victoria, every column blackedged, were seiling on the streets a few minutes after the announcement of her

LONDON TREATRES ALL CLOSED

Every theatre and music ball immediately which had been held in readiness. The performances had not commenced, but the doors had been opened.

It is not known as yet what will happen in regard to public mourning in the case of places of amusement. In the licenses of many theatres there is a clause by which the proprietors agree to close for twentyone days in case of the death of the sovereign. When the Prince Consort died the theatres closed for a fortnight.

SORROW THROUGHOUT THE KINGDOM

From Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dublin and all the cities and towns of the United Kingdom the same reports of sorrow come. of how the Queen had passed the night. | were closed, public engagements were can-

EXPRESSIONS OF SORROW.

mediately taken up by many hundreds that the body of the Queen will lie in state in St. Paul's Cathedral. This and all being raised on a clause of the act of 1867 similar statements are the merest guesses,

In the midst of the sadness there are expressions of satisfaction that the sceptre recognized as precoging an announcement | making of an ideal King, whatever grace

the most lovable and most attractive quali- He says:

Tones the stomach, revives the appetite .- Ads. | Opens January 26, 1901. Golf .- Ads.

cottors to bears Rist immediately. The council or report tool to another at Covers Fitting.

Marting of the Prive Connett Will He Held to Learner Jun 22 - It is understood that a meeting of the Privy Conneil, at which the King will take the oath of accession, will be

Although all such ceremonials depend that the proclamation of the new King for the publication of the proclamation in the other chief cities of the United Kingterritories.

PARLIAMENT SUMMONED.

Meets To-day to Take the Oath of Allegiance to the New Sovereign.

announcement was made at midnight:

"In consequence of the death of her Majesty, the Queen, the houses of Parliament will assemble on Wednesday at 4 P. M. for the purpose only of enabling the Peers regarding the dissolution of Parliament. Mussalman community, the celebration People act of 1867, which provides that the death was received. The Sheikh Ul Islam | the Crown in the customary exercise of the of the British Isles immediately proposed royal prerogative. Therefore Parlia-The second bulletin appeared at about a resolution of condolence, which was ment is summoned and the members will be resworn. Resolutions of sympathy with chosen by himself. In the case of the lathe royal family and of congratulation to the new sovereign on his accession will be had been prepared on the understanding

There is a possibility of a curious quibble quoted above. A clause in the act refers | accordingly to be made. Those whose duty and the clause was omitted from these acts. If such a quibble should be raised desire is."

FRENCH PRESIDENT'S SYMPATHY.

Special Catte Despatch to THE SUN. oria's death became known here about 8; telegraphed their condolences. clock. All the newspapers issued special editions which were eagerly bought up by of Queen Victoria from Cardinal Rampoila, the boulevardiers.

Paris too fate to allow of comment by the will be represented at the Tuneral by a House. His appearance was immediately broad symmathy can contribute to the merely published the fact. In a telegram sad thoughts that must have passed through ! the Queen's mind during the last few hours. of her life if she contrasted the England of 1901 with the England of the Jubilee year. M. Bailby welcomes as a good sign indicative of a desire to quantain a courte ous, correct and almost friendly attitude The Times says: "The King has under- toward a neighboring nation not precisely > great natural aptitude for the duties of impressions written before the news of the royalty. Endowed as he is with many of passing away of the Queen was received.

"It is said that the Prince of Wales went at the bedside of his dying mother. Here executive. this immediate in the cast conver-

FREEEN FREDERICK TOLD

Prose Tributer to the Onesn

Bernan Jon to The Empress started Frederick, who control the news of her ; mofficial reports as to the condition of the latter continue to arrive

It is expected that the Court will go into nourning for six weeks. The usual time of mourning for covernigns who are not reinted is four weeks

Special editions of the newspapers were issued with the announcement of the Queen's death. The papers all express regret and pay tributes to her character They express the opinion that the death of the Queen will not affect the relations of Germany and Great Britain and refer to the recent utterances of the Keiser and Chancellor von Billow in support of this. They also assert that for the past four years the personal relations of Emperor William and the Prince of Wales have been of the most cordial nature. They recal he fact that the Emperor went to the fallway station to meet the Prince of Wales when he was returning from Copenhagen after the youth Sipidio had fired a shotal

KING LEOPOLD MUCH DEPRESSED. Announces That He Will Attend the Funeral of

Queen Victoria. Special Cubic Despatch to THE SUN Baresats, Jan 22 - King Leopold was the first one here to receive the news of the Queen's death in a telegram from Osborne. He is very much depressed. The King announces his intention of attending the funeral. The British legation was thronged with callers all day. The Anglo-American Chamber of Commerce will be closed to morrow AUSTRIAN EMPEROR AFFECTED.

VIENNA, Jan. 22 - Emperor Francis do

THE KING'S NAME. Cannot Be Positively Known Until the Oath Is Taken To-day.

Special Cubis Desputch to THE SUN LONDON, Jan. 23. The Daily News prints

that the oath would be taken to Alexandrina Victoria. The Queen, however, at her declaration signed herself simply Victoria and alterations in the forms prepared had it is to look up precedents will probably he warned by this experience and will either wait to see how the King styles hims | secretary self, or ascertain beforehand what his kneels When Told of Queen's Death Royal Family's Condolences.

ROME, Jan. 22. The fact of Queen Victoria's death was known here at 9 o'clock. King Victor Emmanuel, Queen Helena, the Paris, Jan. 22. - The news of Queen Vic- | Queen Dowager Margherita and the Pope

The Pope received the news of the death the Pontifical Secretary of State. The President Loubet immediately directed Pope had followed her Majesty's filmess M. Paul Cambon, the French Ambassador | with the greatest interest and sympathy. sage of sympathy to the Prince of Wales a considerable time. Afterward he orover the Queen's illness and received a reply | dered that prayers be said in all the churches The news of the Queen's death reached soul. It is understood that his Holiness!

BOSTON'S FLAG AT BALF-MAST.

DEFINITE DESPRICARS IN EXCLAND ON THE OFFECA DEATH

President McStmier Expresses ffte Canster's and the then fratanne fragest and fremparter frage on all Covernment fintid-

togs at Hatt-Att-W treemal Tributes

Wassermann Inc. or The great interest to the manifestart in there is because the total manifester and are the 180 mil arribes to Washington ATT S SOFFERS THE RESIDENCE WAS the first though that the out and the strill ories great sympt for this when Presicolleged to the and news was and apparently, not been the print several days that the Convert was interest. Navy little work. Time to earnment departments annequal of Thirteen a death. From hyptness present to discuss the effect on the Queen's passing away or requested us a dree friend of the United the a ver much feeling there may be tires, the Queen was unor that with esteem and even ad hern received here the offiand not about taking the usual

White House the flags of all the Government aldings were placed at half-staff, and they show of the foregrap The President and the Secretary of State the Oneen a death to receive official as authority the press despatches containing dieta of her Majesty's physicians ing the news, and Secretary Hay, if of the coveriment, homediately best a message to Mr. theate, the stayes Ambassador in London. The dussider, London Leapiness to bord Lansdowne the arrays of the reversiment and the the United States at the death of and the deep sympaths we feel exple of the British Luqure in their down Hay.

the Queen. Allow me, sir, to offer ere even pathy and that of the American species whipsthy and that of the American spic in your personal bereavement and in less threat Britain has suffered in the the of its venerable and illustrious Boylarn, whose noble life and beneficent institute have promoted the peace and wone affection of the world.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

Later in the day Lord Paulucefote, the ritish Ambassador, received a despatch om the Marquis of Latsdowne, Minister or Foreign Adairs, saving that the Queen

the official acknowl-

fined to the

deepest sympathy